No waiting and managing the house building as this is 4 years old and has all the upgrades and fully developed. You can't get this from the builder. 9 foot basement and 10 foot main floors. A front porch that enters to the Great room/living room with light flooding into the area. Adjacent dining room and a great kitchen with a peninsula instead of the island (way more functional) and a den across from the kitchen. You could use it as a office or a nook for the kitchen. Stainless steel appliances and granite counters. The master is very large with a 5 ft shower, granite counter in vanity and a great walk in closet with wood shelves. There is a 1/2 bath and the laundry area accesses the back door to the private no maintenance yard and the oversized garage.. The garage is a Guy's dream measuring 23 x 24.5 with storage in the upper part of the garage. Down the open set of stairs, there is an huge entertainment area with a walk up dry bar, 2 generous bedrooms, a full bath with a computer corner and storage. Pride of ownership and one floor living.
