First-time home buyer or looking for an investment property? Look no further!

This great horse property has so much potential for the next owner to come in and take their time to continue with the upgrades. This home features three large bedrooms with ample closet space, a spacious kitchen, dining area, and living room. A sunroom off the south side of the home is a great place to get your gardens or serves as a playroom for kids. The downstairs has a large, finished family room and a sizable unfinished utility room with numerous workbenches and storage shelving. There is also a walkable attic to store all your seasonal decorations. Property has a great well with ample water supply.

The two-piece bath has new flooring, lighting, a toilet, and a pedestal sink. The primary bedroom has brand new carpet. There is updated lighting in the dining room. The pastures, completed in 2019, are made of strong 5.25-inch posts and four-strand wire. Additionally, two wooden plank corrals with an alley separating the pens were built in 2022.

There is a single-car detached garage for convenient parking, as well as a large shop with two 12-foot sliding doors, a concrete floor, abundant access to power, a central vacuum system, and a heavy-duty air compressor.

This property boasts a great central location, only one hour to Calgary and one hour to Lethbridge, and just one mile of gravel off Highway 2. Priced with instant equity and quick possession is available!

Built in 1940
