NONE, Fort Macleod, Alberta

Presenting 149 20th Street, Fort Macleod.

A true Fort Macleod icon—this beautifully renovated two-storey home blends timeless character with striking modern upgrades in a way few properties ever do. Located just steps from the pool, arena, Main Street, and with a park right over the back fence, this is the kind of place where family memories are made.

Inside, you™ll find 5 spacious bedrooms and 3 stylish bathrooms, with every corner of the home reflecting thoughtful updates while preserving its historic charm. The showstopper? A $100,000 custom kitchen renovation that will take your breath away—featuring solid oak cabinetry, gleaming quartz countertops, and a design layout that™s as functional as it is inspiring.

This home offers endless spaces to entertain or spread out as a family—whether you™re relaxing on the southern-inspired wraparound front porch, enjoying the beautiful backyard entertainment space complete with a pergola, or making use of the dog run and outdoor kennel for your furry friends.

Outside, the property stuns with a triple detached garage and a sprawling double lot that™s practically the size of a football field—offering unbeatable space and privacy, right in town.

Homes like this donâ€™t come along often. If youâ€™re looking for a standout family home with unmatched style, space, and locationâ€”this one checks every box.
